County Funds For Exploitation In Next Year Estimated At $474,000.

County funds for exploitation would be sliced by $60,000 in the 1946-47 budget under the preliminary draft set up by County Manager Wayne R. Allen in preparation for public hearings before the Board of Supervisors.

Last year $534,000 had been allocated by the County for exploitation. This year Allen has specified $474,000 for that purpose.

Completely out of the 1946-47 budget is an item of $25,000 earmarked last year for the county's California Centennial Authority and the All-Year Club's appropriation has been carried down to $209,000. In the 1945-46 budget this was $275,000.

While these changes, if adopted by the supervisors, would mean a saving of $91,000, additions and a boost of one item add up to $31,000, making the net reduction $60,000.

New items inserted are (1) $1000 for the development of Mission Trails and (2) $2500 for the Pilgrimage Play, and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce favored with an allocation hike of $27,000.

Last year the chamber received $170,000 from the County Treasury, but in the new budget Allen wants that institution to receive $197,500 from which would be drawn funds for such functions as the Pomona Fair, California State Fair and the Orange Show at San Bernardino, discontinued during wartime.

Present day economic conditions were given by Allen as the reason for the $60,000 slash in the All-Year Club handout. Last year's Hollywood Bowl allocation of $10,000, the County Symphonic Band's appropriation of $50,000 and the Roads to Romance Association's $4000 fund all were included by the county manager in the 1946-47 budget draft.

Multi-Million Dollar Food Crop Threatened

A critical shortage of refrigerated freight cars, caused by the nation's soft coal strike, today threatens spoilage of California's multi-million-dollar perishable food crop.

Taking direct action to try and avert such catastrophe, the California State Chamber of Commerce has sent telegrams to both California senators in Washington, William F. Knowland Jr. and Sheridan Downey, urging that Federal Government take steps to insure an adequate supply of refrigerator cars within the next three weeks.

The seriousness of the situation according to Mr. Musatti is revealed by the fact that there are now available for use of fruit and vegetable shippers less than 1,000 refrigerator cars in the Southern California region, while 11,000 cars will be required to haul the cantaloupe crop—which growers will begin harvesting in three weeks—and another 30,000 cars will be needed shortly for the 1946 potato harvest. Cars which normally would be returned by eastern coal-burning railroads are now sidetracked as these roads seek to conserve dwindling coal supplies.

Henry Brandon and Juanita Encell featured in the cast of over 300 in "Ramona" opening its 19th season next Saturday in Ramona Bowl. The historical Early California play will be seen 6 times during the current season.

'Ramona' Season Extended Through Next Week-End

Due to the unprecedented demand for tickets for "Ramona" which is completely sold out for next Saturday and Sunday, it has been decided to add another weekend to the season with two additional performances on May 18 and 19.

This announcement comes from Adrian Awan, managing supervisor of the outdoor pageant at Ramona Bowl, who adds that this marks the first time in the 19 year history of the play that additional performances have ever been given.

Including the performances next Saturday and Sunday more than 36,000 persons will have visited the Bowl during the regularly scheduled six shows, and with the announcement that 19 an additional attendance of 12,000 could be added to the record.

Tickets for these two additional performances may be obtained by calling Ramona Bowl direct or in Los Angeles at the Southern California Music Co. Also there are over fifty Mutual ticket agencies throughout the Southland cities who are taking orders for the extra performances.

Glenn Whitney All-Year Club Council Leader

Glenn Whitney, Glendale attorney who has been active in supporting growth of Southern California's $202,000,000-a-year tourist industry, today was in office as the new general chairman of the Los Angeles County Advisory Council of the All-Year Club. He succeeds Judge Irving Austin, of Compton.

Ralph Collins, Santa Monica utility executive, is the new assistant general chairman, succeeding Whitney in this post.

Three new district chairmen are R. L. Anderson, Glendale realtor; Charles Prickett, manager of the Pasadena Community Playhouse; W. M. Tate, Huntington Park businessman.

The advisory council is made up of 300 civic and business leaders from communities throughout the county, who help decide the policies of the All-Year Club, the Southland's community tourist promotion organization.

Other districts in the council include the harbor, Long Beach, Monrovia, Whittier, South Bay, Inglewood, Hollywood, Pomona, Beverly Hills, Van Nuys and San Fernando.

Police Show Reservations Going Fast

Frank Sinatra and Bob Hope will be "guest stars" on the 12th Annual Los Angeles Police Show.

"If you want to be the early bird who gets the best seats for the 12th Annual Los Angeles Police Show on the night when your favorite 'guest star' will appear, you better be quick," warned Detective Sergeant Harry Fremont, director of the 12th Annual Los Angeles Police Show, to be held in the Shrine Auditorium on May 22 to June 4, inclusive.

"Guest stars" appearing during the 12th Annual Los Angeles Police Show include Red Skelton on May 22 and 23; Kay Kyser on May 24, 25 and 26; Frank Sinatra on May 27 and 28, and Bob Hope on May 29, 30 and 31. "Guest stars" for the last four days of the show will be announced later.

All exchange tickets must be traded for reserved seats or admission tickets not later than June 2.

Fourteen acts of vaudeville and four elaborate production numbers with 24 beautiful girls have been scheduled for the 14 nights of the Police Show. The producer Frederic Kramer. The police prologue will be composed of a male chorus of 60 voices featuring Officer Don Kent as soloist and the Los Angeles Police Band under the direction of Captain Harry Signor.

Payroll Of 300 Seen At Hendy Plant Here Soon

The Joshua Hendy Iron Works, 2750 W. Lomita Blvd., has increased its personnel from 40 to 150 men in the past 45 days, Manager Arthur D. Freshman announced.

Freshman said the company expects to employ 300 men by next September. The staff is being increased as tools and machines arrive from the company's Sunnyvale plant near San Francisco.

The Hendy are manufacturers of heavy equipment such as cranes and other industrial and construction equipment. Also being manufactured here are sluice gates for dams.

During the war the Hendy company made heavy ordnance parts for the Army and Navy departments.

Comedy-Drama Of Vineyards On Steel Show

The first San Francisco broadcast of the United States Steel Corporation's radio show starring John Garfield, with Leo Carrillo and June Havoc in "They Knew What They Wanted," will be aired from the War Memorial Opera House Sunday, May 19, at 6 p. m. (PST) via ABC's coast-to-coast network.

Playwright Sidney Howard's Pulitzer prize-winning comedy-drama of the California vineyards was one of the Theatre Guild's major successes on Broadway. Audiences liked its frankness and emotional appeal, and reviewers gave it a rousing reception.

In his portrayal of Joe, the farm foreman, Garfield finds himself in a role not altogether unfamiliar. As an itinerant worker before he became famous in the films, he was a fruit picker in the San Joaquin Valley. Carrillo, the gay caballero of many movies, is Tony Paticci, the vineyard owner, and Miss Havoc is Amy, the San Francisco waitress he meets and marries.

Hollywood talent scouts spotted Garfield in a Broadway hit, signed him for the part of Mickey in "Four Daughters." He appeared in two other pictures and quickly established himself as an outstanding actor. His present long-term contract enables him to return to New York to do one play a year.

Garfield's screen triumphs include "Juarez," "Saturday's Children," "The Sea Wolf," "Dangerously They Live," "Destination Tokyo," "Between Two Worlds," "Pride of the Marines" and "The Postman Always Rings Twice."
